

Low Sutton Masham

The main access route to Masham is by way of the A6108 from either Ripon or Leyburn. Travelling from the A1 Masham is approx 8 miles distance and accessed by way of the B6267 which in turn junctions with the A6108 just outside Masham. A right turn takes you onto the A6108 through Masham and on to Leyburn. On leaving Masham after approximately 1 mile you will pass Marfield nature reserve on your right. Continue for approx 0.5 mile where a road sign indicates a left turn. A landmark at this point is a large Victorian house, Sutton Grange on the approach to the junction . Take this left turn which has a sign stating that the road is unsuitable for caravans. Continue for 0.25 mile where you will see a gateway on the left with a white beehive located on the roadside. You have reached your destination.

Tel 01765 688565 Mob 07821 600521
Low Sutton Masham
Copyright © 2010